

ENVISIONING JESUS

REVELATION 1:9-20

After John provided his introductory statements explaining the purpose of the book of Revelation, the first thing he records is a vision of Jesus that He witnessed on the island of Patmos while he "was in the Spirit on the Lord's day" (Revelation 1:9-10 What is the significance of this vision? What does it tell us about Jesus? How does it relate to the crisis facing the churches of Revelation? Why do Christians today need this vision of Jesus?
