

WHEN THE TRUMPET OF THE LORD SHALL SOUND
 REVELATION 8:1-6

Back in Revelation 5, John saw the Lamb take a scroll, which was “sealed with seven seals” out of the hand of “the One who was seated on the throne.” Then, in Revelation 6, the Lamb began opening the seven seals. As the first six seals are opened, they reveal what the church would endure at the hands of Rome, but they also revealed that God is still in control. When the seventh seal is opened, it introduces us to a new series of events—the blowing of seven trumpets. What is the purpose of these seven trumpet blasts?

WHY IS THE PURPOSE OF THE TRUMPETS?

1. The trumpets _____ to God’s people.

What happened immediately after the seventh seal was opened?

- There was “_____” in heaven (Revelation 8:1).

- John saw an angel offer “_____...on the golden _____” that “rose before God” along “with the _____ of the saints” (Revelation 8:3-4).

- These details seem to indicate that the blowing of the trumpets is preceded by God’s _____ to the _____ of the saints.

2. The trumpets _____ the impenitent of pending _____.

- The intent of sounding trumpets as a warning to repent is evidenced by the persistent use of _____ (Revelation 8:7-12) and the emphasis on the fact that not everyone _____ after enduring these “plagues” (Revelation 9:20-21).

- The intent of sounding trumpets as a warning to repent is supported by the biblical example of a _____ (Ezekiel 33:1-9).

- The intent of sounding trumpets as a warning to repent is supported by the reference to _____ in the fifth trumpet (Joel 1:4, 14; Amos 4:9; 2 Chronicles 7:13-14).
