

THE CAPERNAUM HOUSE

MARK 2:1-12

And when he returned to Capernaum after some days, it was reported that he was at home. And many were gathered together, so that there was no more room, not even at the door. And he was preaching the word to them. And they came, bringing to him a paralytic carried by four men. And when they could not get near him because of the crowd, they removed the roof above him, and when they had made an opening, they let down the bed on which the paralytic lay. And when Jesus saw their faith, he said to the paralytic, "Son, your sins are forgiven."

THE BACKGROUND OF THE CAPERNAUM HOUSE:

Use this space to write down any details about this house call that you find important.

WHAT DO WE LEARN FROM THIS HOUSE CALL?

FAITH IS _____ BECAUSE "JESUS _____ THEIR FAITH" (MARK 2:5)

- Hebrews 11:1 defines faith as an unseen _____, but the rest of the chapter identifies the observable _____ through which spiritual heroes demonstrated their _____ (Hebrews 11:1,4, 7, 8, 17, 20, 21, 22, 25).
- When James addressed the relationship between faith and works, he said, "_____ me your faith apart from your works, and I will _____ you my faith by my works" (James 1:18). He then referenced the fact that "demons _____" to illustrate that belief without the accompanying action is not really faith (James 1:19).

FAITH IS _____ BECAUSE "JESUS SAW _____ FAITH" (MARK 2:5)

- _____ is routinely linked with _____ in the Gospels because the hemorrhaging woman, Bartimaeus, and the thankful leper each heard Jesus say, "Your _____ has made you _____" (Mark 5:34; 10:52; Luke 17:19).
- The paralyzed man got to Jesus because everyone involved shared a _____ faith in Jesus' ability to do something about his condition. This is why we are instructed to "not be unequally _____ with unbelievers" (2 Corinthians 6:14) and to "have _____ on those who doubt" (Jude 1:22).
